

Area 5
Snake River Square and Round Dancers
Welcome you to the 44th Annual
Idaho State
Square and Round Dance Festival

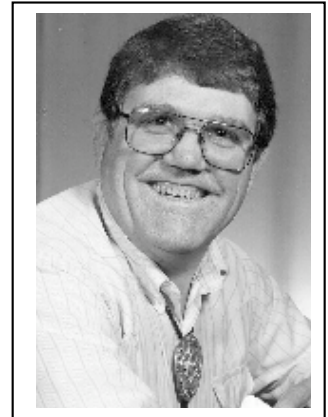

June 13 and 14, 2008
Sugar City High School
Sugar City, Idaho

Meet the caller, Al Frazier

Al Frazier started calling in 1990 and attended his first of five Caller Schools. He and his wife started dancing in 1987. He was one of those guys that had to be dragged into dancing. It didn't take him long to enjoy square dancing and meeting wonderful people. Al presently calls for 3 clubs in the Austin area: Apache Raindancers, LaGrange Roadrunners, Kountry Squares. Al has recorded on the Red Boot Label, Alliance Records and is a caller with Rawhide Records.

Al and Connie moved to Austin in 1985 as a transfer from Lubbock with the Texas Dept. of Transportation. And Support Business a CMIT Solutions franchise. Connie works for Public Employees. They have a son, daughter and son in law and 2 grandchildren.

Al is a member of Caller Lab. He is a member of the Texas State Callers Association. He is also a member of the Capital Area Dance Leaders and the Heart of Texas Callers. Al has called at 12 National Conventions, 17 Texas State Festivals. He currently calls 175-200 dances per year.

Meet the cuer, Nancy & Amos Mouser

Nancy and Amos Mouser started square dancing in 1989 and began round dance lessons in 1990. Nancy decided to pick up the mic in 1998. Since that time they have taught classes in Great Falls and Helena, served as resident cuer at Lionshead, and cued a variety of weekend and special dances in Montana, Idaho, and Nevada. They have showcased and taught at USA West in Wyoming, and Idaho and National Conventions in Anaheim and St. Paul. They spent 4 years living in Germany cuing for a local club. Nancy recently retired after 34 years with the US Military. Amos is a retired Air Force member and spent 17 years working with handicap equipment for an orthopedic company. They live and dance in Mountain Home, Idaho.

Nancy and Amos have been married since 1968, and they have 2 daughters and 8 grandchildren.

